Project objectives:
To increase and improve human and social capital between European and Asian institutions of higher learning in order for these individuals and institutions to contribute positively in reducing economic, political and socio-cultural gaps.

Brief description:
Eleven (11) institutions of higher learning from Europe and Asia entered into a partnership to facilitate exchange of a total of 221 students and staff for study, training, teaching and research between their institutions with a budget of 4,962,125 EUR. The partnership will be implemented for 36 months and will be coordinated by the University of Boras in Sweden with membership from Sweden, Italy, France, Spain, Portugal, and Cambodia, Vietnam, Lao PDR, Thailand and Indonesia. The cooperation will cover various disciplines with strong focus on business, science, engineering, and technology. The partnership is building on the strength of programs of study from these partners in order to respond to the needs of countries especially the Third country partners who are developing nations and emerging economies in the region.
