	Brief description: CRUZ DEL SUR - Enhancing university Internationalization for comprehensive development in Latin America, is a project focused in building a solid mobility scheme for undergraduates, graduates, researchers, academic and administrative staff between Latin American and European HEI's based on "non-discrimination and fostering new opportunities". This network is coordinated by the University of Murcia (ES) and the Universidad Pedagógica Nacional Francisco Morazán (HN). It consists of 20 full member HEIs, targeting a total of 14 countries, 9 in Latin America: Honduras, El Salvador, Guatemala and Nicaragua (Group A), Argentina, Brazil, Mexico, Panama and Uruguay (Group B); and 5 in Europe: Spain, Italy, Portugal, Poland and Latvia. Most of the Latin American HEIs (12 from 14) are situated in vulnerable areas (Less Develop Regions), into which the project intends to make a big impact. The project foresees 194 mobility flows: 142 from LA to EU and 52 from EU to LA. The internationalization and modernisation of the Latin American HEI's for the comprehensive development constitutes the project backbone through the stengthening of the International Relations Offices by means of 3 Training Seminars focused on "Academic Recognition", "Funding Search" and "Informatics Tools for Mobility Management". The transfer of know-how will be essential, specially for Honduras, El Salvador, Guatemala and Nicaragua in order to achieve a credit transfer system and to facilitate the study recognition. The sustainability is guaranteed by the creation of an own Mobility Programme "Cruz del Sur" between all the partnership, with an exchange scheme and secondly with the design and development of a Joint Master in "Sustainable Human Development and Social Action", comprehensive development includes social sciences studies, such as: gender and equality, nutrition and food security, and childhood and poverty, all of which, are areas demanded by the LA partners.
