

The Erasmus Mundus
External Co-operation Window
(EM ECW)

Call for proposals for mobility flows in the Academic Year 2007-2008

A new co-operation & mobility scheme

- The EM ECW is a co-operation and mobility scheme in the area of higher education co-operation launched by Europe Aid cooperation Office and implemented by the Executive Agency Education, Audiovisual and Culture
- The geographic coverage for the academic year 2007-2008 is:
  - Neighbouring Countries in South Mediterranean and Eastern Europe (Morocco, Algeria, Tunisia, Egypt, West Bank and Gaza Strip, Israel, Jordan, Lebanon, Syria, Russia, Ukraine, Belarus, Armenia, Moldova, Azerbaijan, Georgia);
  - Central Asian Republics (Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Uzbekistan, Turkmenistan);
  - Yemen, Iraq and Iran.

- EMECW is a new co-operation and mobility scheme complementary to other higher education initiatives: Erasmus Mundus, Erasmus, Tempus, Asia-Link, ALFA, Alban, and Edu-link.
- EM ECW is designed to foster co-operation in the field of higher education between the European Union and Third-Countries through a co-operation and mobility scheme addressing students and academic staff.

The European Commission will contribute to financing partnerships of European and Third-Country higher education institutions (and associations and networks of universities) with a grant which will cover:

- the costs of the organisation of mobility of higher education students and academic staff and,
- the costs of the implementation of individual mobility flows of higher education students and academic staff.

- 27 EU Members States
- Candidate Countries
  - (Croatia, FYROM, Turkey)
- EEA countries
  - (Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway)
