INTRODUCTION

The key aim of setting out past projects in this compendium is to inspire others to create new, future projects. By giving concrete, detailed information about previous projects it is possible to demonstrate clearly what kind of activities can be carried out in the framework of the YOUTH programme, although the list is by no means exhaustive. The compendium offers an opportunity to discover ideas and stimulate the imagination.

The projects presented in this Compendium were selected for funding under the YOUTH programme at European level selection rounds within the so-called third-country cooperation with the countries of Latin America (LA) for budget year 2004.

Third-Country Cooperation with the LA countries, initially launched in 1992, is still one of the priorities of the YOUTH programme in 2004 aiming to further develop and increase the number of these activities to comprise more diverse partnerships and to improve the quality of projects.

The objective of youth activities with countries outside the European Union is to promote a better understanding of the young people’s respective environments and to foster a sense of solidarity among them. These activities enable those involved to try out different forms of democratic participation in society. By contributing to the development of the youth sector in the partner countries, the YOUTH programme facilitates the acquisition of knowledge and techniques required for the active participation of young people into civil society.

This Compendium presents the projects selected with the Latin American countries and covers various types of activities under Actions 1, 2 and 5 of the Programme.

So what are Actions 1, 2 and 5?

Action 1 - Youth Exchanges bring together groups of young people aged between 15 and 25 from different backgrounds and from several countries, providing them with an opportunity to meet, and tackle issues under various themes. This leads to a better understanding of the diversity of culture, and to an appreciation of the value of that diversity. Group exchanges aim to combat prejudices and stereotypes, to promote active citizenship and to raise positive awareness of other cultures among the young participants and in local host communities.

Action 2 - European Voluntary Service enables a young person to become a volunteer in another country for a specific period, usually 6-12 months. This provides an informal intercultural learning experience for the young people involved, encouraging their integration into society and active participation, whilst also increasing their employability and giving them an opportunity to show solidarity with other people. Voluntary service projects support the development of local communities, foster the creation of new partnerships and promote the exchange of experience and good practice. These projects are a result of partnerships between sending organisations, host organisations and the volunteers themselves. They do not involve job-substitution and they are non-profit-making and unpaid.

Action 5 - Support Measures are designed to promote the aims of the YOUTH programme in a number of ways. They assist the development of the other Actions of the YOUTH programme by increasing the quantity and quality of projects submitted. Alternatively they may contribute to achieving the overall objectives of the Programme and to strengthening European youth policy or they may contribute to the development of the youth sector in the partner countries.

Action 5 activities are carried out in the fields of co-operation and partnerships, training measures and youth information. Cooperation and partnership activities help to establish permanent working relations between partners, or to promote innovation that favours new multilateral youth exchanges and voluntary service. Training activities provide youth workers or youth leaders and other support persons with the necessary skills to organise and manage transnational youth activities based on intercultural learning, or provide them with knowledge and competencies to work with young people with special needs. Youth information projects encourage greater cooperation and the development of new activities or materials to complement activities carried out in the field of non-formal education.

Find out more about all these projects in the following pages, where they are listed by Action.

This document is designed not only to give information on the accepted projects, but to be used as partner search resource as well.

The project references indicating the country first are selected at national level, and further information can be obtained from the respective National Agency (for contact details, please refer to http://europa.eu.int/comm/youth/program/natage_en.html), for the project references starting with six digits more information can be obtained from the European Commission or from the Technical Assistance Office (for contact details, please refer to the last page of this document).

Project Title: II Encuentro de Juventudes Creadoras

This project started two years ago, when a group of Spanish youngsters participated in an international activity in Ecuador. They enjoyed the activity very much and decided to do a similar activity in Spain. Like in the first "Encuentro de Juventudes creadoras" we are going to do an activity with 5 European countries (Spain, Sweden, England, Italy and France) and 5 American countries (Colombia, Ecuador, Argentina, Nicaragua, Peru). The first part is the preparation of the international exchange that is going to take place in August. The objective of this first part is that the organising group learns how to develop international projects. The second part of the project is the international exchange, a multilateral activity with third countries that will take place. This international exchange aims to be a non-formal learning experience. We have chosen a theme that will be translated into the specific daily activities of the exchange. The theme is: "The active participation of youngsters in society", we are going to discuss about how youngsters can improve our society, to spend time talking about the future, how young people could change the future and how we can cooperate.

Project Title: Igualdad de oportunidades, solidaridad e integración social

This is the second part of a project which was carried out with Latin-American youth in Colombia in 2003. We will carry out workshops to raise awareness among the participants and search alternatives to promote equality, solidarity and integration. We will debate different situations with technicians who work in the social field and will get us in touch with real situations. There will be conferences, we will know organisations and public entities which work with the most needed groups of society and we will agree on activities to carry out in the future as a learning element from this meeting. We will express the sense of youth solidarity in the European and world society through proposals which will be a model for youth.

Project Title: “Un pasaporte de ida y vuelta”

The migrations from Europe to South-America and vice versa have been very frequent mainly in both last centuries. This has made the links between the two sides of the ocean narrower. Nowadays Europe is receiving migrants from Latin America, and from countries from the East and Maghreb. With this exchange we intend to make a reflection and raise awareness on the role that immigration has played throughout history and particularly in our lives, because today we may be the receiving migrants but tomorrow, like has happened previously, we can be the migrants, those who must leave our country, language, family... in search of a better future. We also intend to create methods which favour the integration of the immigrants in the societies receiving them.

Project Title: Libres para Cooperar, Libres para Crear

This project aims to be a meeting-forum for Italian, Nicaraguan, Mexican and Spanish young people keen on fighting against social exclusion and using some of their free time. The participants come from very different circumstances. The Italian group belongs to an association which works with underprivileged teenagers who are in unfair social conditions. The Nicaraguans come from a country with underprivileged teenagers who are in unfair social conditions. The Nicaraguans come from a country with extremely reduced economic possibilities. But these group of people form part of a community that tries hard to change the surrounding reality. The Mexican youth come from Chiapas and stand for the indigenous cause, working and taking an active part in the improvement of these communities. The Spanish being the welcoming groups’ experiences of organized activism.

It is the project’s aim to live a real intercultural experience to discuss the subjects that are important: wars immigration, impoverished areas, racism, ethnic minorities. And we think all this can change using our time and imagination, creating many politically committed offers which will be attractive and lively to change the world while having good time.

In this way the project will have a part in which the participants will meet and know each other. The ones already in Seville will dive into social reality in an associative way, treating children of poorer areas. In Cordoba, we will have time for a cultural visit and then in Granada, we will practise some trekking in Sierra Nevada and will meet some children of a Gypsy community. We will discuss about cooperation and the possibilities the UE offers to associations development.

Once in Chiclana (Cádiz) we will join the coastal Intercultural Symposium open to the public. The project will finish with a big party and a final evaluation from all the participants.

Project Title: Mayfield Community Arts - Public Art for Equality

The project will bring together young artists from 4 countries to engage in an exchange that will focus on Arts skills exchange, Cultural exchange in relation to equality issues, and participation in the creation of public art pieces to be highlighted as part of Cork European Capital of Culture programme. Mayfield Community Arts have been co-operating with Funarte in Colombia over the last few years. They felt that the addition of a partner from NI and a partner from Columbia will add to the relationship. They have already had a Feasibility Visit where they planned the programme together. Intercultural learning and communication will be a strong focus. It will also enable participants to develop skill in arts, communication, intercultural work and team work. As the project is including partners from 'developing' countries the theme will be inequality between different countries and what can be done to promote equality and understanding between cultures. Art will be used to allow young people to express their opinions on equality, exclusion, peace and conflict.

Project Title: Youth for peace - towards a new world

The project is a cultural exchange of European and South American young people between 18 and 25 years old, concerning the culture of nonviolence and living together in peace. For the project to be more efficient, and to succeed in project's objectives of peace and non violence, we think it's necessary for the youngsters to have a better knowledge of the social, historical and cultural status of the participating countries of this exchange. This, to be able to understand the roots of the various problems which exist, from where the violence grows and why, and then to find another way. Exploring various issues, the participants will have the opportunity to gain a greater understanding of some of the causes of conflict, therefore creating a solid basis for finding the more appropriate solutions. We believe that it will be very interesting to work on common points between Colombia, Ecuador, Spain, Portugal, and Italy. Through this project, youngsters will begin to know other cultures, other realities, so it will be a good way for them to feel to belong to a common culture with tolerance and respect. The acknowledgment, as active subjects of the communication process, will transform the impact of the social violence into a learning situation which generates consensus and concrete actions for the achievement of the value of peace and non-violence.

The project represents the last step of a two years process started in December 2002 in Porto Alegre (Brazil) and then in Berlin and then again in Rosario (Argentina) in December 2004. Participants from Argentina and Brazil come from "favelas" and from Berlin and Naples come from "Höheschönhausen" and "Quartiere Sanità" which are famous for the high rate of unemployment, will meet once again in Naples. Through the expression of their personal experiences in a workshop on theatre the participants will further develop the theme and the similarities and differences among the four countries. They will work together to elaborate a common "utopia". Through the realization of a final performance (the two BRazilian leader Fernando Barbosa and Arlete De Cunha have already worked with the same groups) we want to express youth problems and possible solution proposal.

Project Title: Youth, women and gender violence

This project is a multilateral exchange activity where young people (most of them who have suffered personally violence and the others work in public institutions dealing with gender violence), will meet and will have the change to exchange their experiences and methods on prevention of the problem "Gender Violence, focalized in Domestic Violence". The project involves young women who have suffered directly of act of violence. We have decided to focus the activity to a female target of participants for one reason: as these women have experienced directly the violence and may have some "concerns" to talk about it, for sure it will be more easy for them to talk about their suffering in an atmosphere where only women (who will not mean danger for them) are present.

Project Title: Exchange reloaded

Exchange Reloaded is a result of the two JSM (Juntos Somos Más) youth exchanges we have organised before. 46 young people in the age of 14-18 will live the same adventure of this intercultural exchange in Barros Blancos, Uruguay. Together they will challenge to overcome cultural and social prejudices and stereotypes, to develop a satisfying relationship/friendship with each other. Through games, teambuilding activities, (educative) workshops, cultural activities and informal contacts they have the opportunity to share their experiences, dreams and obstacles, in their attempt to fulfill their dreams and construct their own future. The project will be constructed around the theme "Show yourself", with special attention to the understanding of the identity of youngsters, how they influence or could influence their surrounding. In this project we leaders would like to be inspiring examples for youngsters and show how youngsters can have an influence on their own future and that of other youngsters.

Cet échange "D'Orfusão" cherche la fusion des plusieurs arts et cultures (dans ce cas, tous latins), représentés à partir de l'idée d'un spectacle multiartistique et multiculturel qui sera présenté à la fin de l'échange. Les participants développeront tout le montage et toute la dynamique du spectacle, au niveau artistique, scénique, technique et promotionnel, ce qui permet, ainsi, de réunir les capacités de tous les participants. Au delà des activités en général, qui sont essentiellement artistique (des ateliers, des défilés, des répétitions et la propre présentation finale), cet échange prévoit des visites culturelles qui intéressent à niveau local et régional et mène à la découverte de la ville, ainsi comme la possibilité de pouvoir participer dans plusieurs activités de loisir que l'association d'Orfeu offre.

Cet échange se dédiéra à la diversité de la culture latine, avec des groupes de jeunes artistes du Portugal, de l'Espagne, du Brésil et de l'Equateur.

With our Belgian volunteers’ help we would like to contribute to this offer and provide an added value in the spare time offer in the area of Artesanos. The activities we offer are not of the religious type. Intercultural learning is our aim towards the Belgian volunteers. Through games we try to stimulate the children's development. Contact with the parents of the children is also very important. Creativity and initiative from our volunteers as well as the from the target group are also important.

Nous allons recevoir Wellington pour 6 mois au sein du Centre Régional d'Information Jeunesse, il va plus particulièrement travailler avec moi, N’Zabela QUENUM, Chargée de Mission Programmes Européens et ainsi pouvoir découvrir non seulement l'ensemble de ce programme que nous avons déjà évoqué ensemble mais il va avoir l'opportunité de prendre part à de nouveaux projets et en intégrer au moins un en tant que jeune leader. En effet, nous souhaitons développer des échanges avec nos voisins proches et si cela n'est pas encore possible avec le Surinam, cela l'est néanmoins avec le Brésil. C'est de notre appartenance à la France et donc de ce fait à l'Europe qu'il nous est permis de monter ce type de projet et ainsi d'avoir la chance de travailler avec le Brésil. Aussi, il nous faut profiter de cet avantage. Un jeune homme tel que Wellington de par ses qualités et ses compétences, étant très dynamique et maîtrisant bien le français et l'anglais peut être une personne ressource très importante par rapport à notre désir profond d'établir des liens durables de développement d'échanges culturels entre le Brésil, la Guyane et la France, cette expérience qu'il va acquérir au sein du CRIJ, nous souhaitions qu'il s'en serve et qu'il la transmette à d'autres soit au Brésil, soit en Guyane soit ailleurs car il a pour ambition de continuer ses études au Canada et à mon avis cette expérience est pour lui nécessaire et indispensable à son épanouissement et à sa transition personnelles. Son intégration au sein de notre équipe constituera aussi une étape importante à l'élargissement de notre réseau international qui va de l'Europe à la Caraïbe en passant par le bassin amazonien.

Project Title: Youth Art in Action Programme

This volunteer service will enable potential art workers to develop new areas related to work practices, increasing their employment prospects. The young people seeking to engage in the voluntary service programme currently participate in workshops and also work as volunteers in the sending organisation. They are applying for a short term EVS as they feel that coming from a country experiencing economical and social challenges that the potential for culture shock is huge. The young people have had little opportunity to travel outside of their own locality. The young people work part-time with Funarte in Nicaragua and their income supports their families. Therefore it would be difficult for them to stay for longer than 3 months. The volunteers would be involved in a series of programmes with the schools and afterschools groups of the host organisation. Each of the groups will be exploring an issue related to rights or advocacy, eg fairtrade, antiracism etc. The themes will be explored in an international context. The volunteers will work/train alongside our existing staff and facilitators. The projects they will be involved in will conclude with an exhibition or event that shares the learning of the groups involved. The volunteers will be involved in the planning of the workshops of the programme and will input their skills and experiences.

Project Title: Maya Paya Kimsa

"Maya-Paya-Kimsa", which is part of the organisation "ALALAY", deals with the work with street children in the suburbs of La Paz in El Alto/Bolivia. Altogether about 20 employees and 10 national and international helpers are keen to work on the well-being of these children, who live on the streets. The project has two core areas, the work with children on the streets and a daytime centre, which is supposed to ease the children’s access to the next step - the entry into a children’s home. The organisation has set itself the target to put the children off from living on the streets by games, education (sexual violence, consequences of drug usage, children’s rights,...) or other activities. The volunteer will be strongly involved into the organisation’s activities. Her duties refer to streetwork, work in the daytime centre, but also the work with her own girls group. A bigger part of the activities are about common games, whereas also the possibility is given to invent own ideas for games and realise them.

The aim of the project is to provide short term volunteers to help improve the living conditions in deprived rural villages in Mexico. The volunteers benefit from the experience of a culture different to theirs and the confidence of being able to make a difference. The main aim of the project is to provide the invaluable opportunity of international volunteering to those who come from low-income families and ethnic minorities, for whom this is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. Some of our volunteers have never been away from home and lack the self-confidence to undertake long-term voluntary service.

Project Title: Art in Action - Project Development for Youth Community/public art project in 2005

Mayfield Community Arts and Funarte in Nicaragua have been co-operating for the last 3 years and both partners have benefitted greatly from the experience. Linking with an arts project in Northern Ireland will provide an interesting collaboration due to the use of political murals there and in Central America. The feasibility visit will be used to plan a multilateral youth exchange for the Cork Capital of Culture in 2005. The theme of the visit will be Art in Action. They will also look at preparations for ST EVS projects. The project involves a leader and a trainee leader from each partner country. All organisations use the arts to work with young people. Each organisation will prepare a workshop using a specific form of Art to give an idea of different methodologies. They will also present their organisations to get an idea of each others national reality and needs of their young people. They will discuss in detail the objectives and outcomes of the future exchange. Each organisation will also have a copy of the application for the exchange and have the opportunity to provide their input.
